We invite you to join us for Coffee Hour after the service for fellowship and conversation.

Zoom: Please stay and join us in small group conversation. Just stay online after the service ends.

Sapperton Hall: Please join us downstairs for coffee and snacks, with safety protocols in place.

Envirobee: Envirobee this week will be exploring renewable energy, looking especially at the book 'The Future is Now' by Bob McDonald of Quirks and Quarks fame. Teresa Morton will lead the in-person discussion while Mary Bennett will host the on-line portion.

Next Service: Sunday, February 11th @ 10:30 am

Our Sources: World Religions

Rev. Meg Roberts

As Unitarian Universalists, we draw "wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life." I certainly know that such wisdom has helped me at crucial times in my life. What wisdom has inspired and supported you? What spiritual practices do you do that come from world religions? Today we'll take a special collection for the Canadian Unitarian Council's Sharing Our Faith Fund which offers congregations grants for growth and outreach.
