We invite you to join us for Coffee Hour after the service for fellowship and conversation.

Zoom: Please stay and join us in small group conversation. Just stay online after the service ends.

Sapperton Hall: Please stay upstairs for coffee and snacks, with safety protocols in place.

Envirobee: With the last EnviroBee of the church year, we will be sharing tips for a low-impact summer! Teresa will bring her laptop so those on Zoom can join in the discussion with those at Sapperton Hall.

Next Service: Sunday June 16, 10:30 am

Flower Communion Ceremony

Rev. Meg Roberts

You are invited to bring a sweet piece of summer for this special Flower Communion service. If you are joining us in person at Sapperton, bring your flower to share with others. If you are joining us online via Zoom, have your flower there to be part of the ceremony—then you can choose to share it with someone in your life after the service or keep it to enjoy in your home. Whether you bring the flower from your yard, or buy one, or even draw one, it is welcome. As we navigate this multi-platform experience, the flower in your heart is more than enough if you show up without a flower. As we close out this church year, let us celebrate each other and the gift that Beacon is in our lives.

Please join us after the service for our annual picnic! We'll be in Sapperton Park if the weather is good, and in Sapperton lower hall if it's raining. Look for more details in Beacon This Week email update.
