Learning from Ancestors

Rev. Lynn Harrison

Many of our ancestors lived through times of great upheaval. What can the practice of learning from our ancestor's experiences offer us right now? Lynn speaks to us by video in this year's Meaning Making series, "Meeting this moment with love and justice."

Lynn Harrison was ordained at Neighbourhood UU Congregation in 2015 after receiving her Master of Divinity degree from Emmanuel College at the University of Toronto. She served on the ministry team of First Unitarian Congregation of Toronto from 2016 to 2023, and currently provides guest ministry for Unitarian congregations in the Toronto area. Lynn is also a performing songwriter with deep roots in the Canadian folk music tradition and has composed numerous songs for UU communities.
