Spiritual Practices for Unitarians

Guest Speaker: Mary Bennett

It's not too late to make a new year's resolution to be more spiritual! Last year, Beacon identified "spirituality" as a top priority. Would you like to be more spiritual this year? Experience more spirituality on Sunday mornings?

Mary will help us explore the topic of spiritual practices for Unitarians. Can anything at all be a spiritual practice?

How do we know when Sunday morning is "spiritual enough"? You might leave with a list of daily, weekly or yearly spiritual practices to try out in 2026. Or you might just get affirmation on being "spiritual enough" already.

Bio: Mary Bennett has tried many spiritual practices and is among those who would like Unitarian congregations to be "more spiritual." Mary first joined the Unitarians in 1989 and has been a member at both Beacon and Vancouver. For 8 years she worked for the Canadian Unitarian Council and visited all the (then) 45 congregations in Canada. She appreciates being invited to speak on Sundays and to facilitate conversations at Beacon.
