Celebrating Beacon Community

Homily Club & Friends

Before we pause for the summer we gather to Celebrate our Beacon Community. This special service will include a ceremony to welcome our newest members, the presentation of our annual gift to our Sharing the Plate partner, and a special thank you to Rachael Greenland who will be leaving us to pursue a new career. Join us as we celebrate new beginnings, hold space for the tenderness of goodbyes, and honour the enduring spirit of our congregation.

Please join us after the service for our all ages picnic a few blocks away in Sapperton Park (corner of Sherbrooke St. and East Columbia in Sapperton). Please bring food to share and a drink of your choice. We will provide the hotdogs (meat and vegetarian). We have booked the lower level of the hall in case of rain.
