Holding the Tension

Rev Karen Fraser Gitlitz

What does it mean to be a mature Unitarian Universalist? One sign of spiritual maturity is the ability to hold both sides of a polarity. Join us as we explore some of the resources available to us on our journey as individuals and as a community.

We will also take time in this service to honour our beloved ancestors. If there is someone you would like to remember, bring a photo or memento to share.

Rev. Karen Fraser Gitlitz (she/her) is a white cis-gendered woman of Scottish, French and English ancestry. Karen and her partner Paul Gitlitz live on the lands of the WSÁNEĆ peoples, colonially known as Saanichton, Vancouver Island. Karen is a Unitarian Universalist community minister and a professional Art Therapist at creativeupwelling.com. Her community ministry focuses on capacity building, collective care, and spirituality, drawing on the power of the creative arts to illuminate connections within and among us.
