A Living Faith
Rev Debra Faulk

Our congregational polity affirms the independence of each congregation. We also recognize that we are connected by and to our UU faith tradition, a faith that is ever changing and adapting to our times with values that remain constant.

Rev Debra Faulk, Minister Emerita, (she/her) now lives in an intentional community on Vancouver Island on the traditional land of the lək̓ʷəŋən People, known today as the Esquimalt and Songhees Nations. She is walking distance from two and a ferry ride from the other three grandchildren. Debra continues to contribute as a volunteer serving on the CUC Board and as a coach for other UU Ministers. She continues to do consulting work and guest preaching. Other delights include the garden, cooking and wondering.

Beacon Homily Club Workshop with Rev. Debra Faulk after the service on Nov 29th.
Lower Level of Sapperton Hall, 12:30 to 2pm.

Bring a bag lunch! Rev. Debra Faulk will present 'crafting the theme and flow of a service'. There will also be time to practice using the mic. The Homily Club is an opportunity for Beacon members and friends to investigate participating in Sunday Services. New club members are always welcome.
